An expert and consultant in criminal laws, Advocate Megha Batra who is associated with the East District Legal Services Authority was invited as a speaker.

She spoke about various laws and actions that can be taken as a victim or even as a person willing to aid the victim of crimes like sexual assault, domestic violence, rapes and acid attacks.

A brilliant performance by the artists of the ASMITA THEATRE GROUP took place too. The performers spread awareness about these sensitive topics and tried to bring about a change in the attitude of students by educating them in a very creative way.

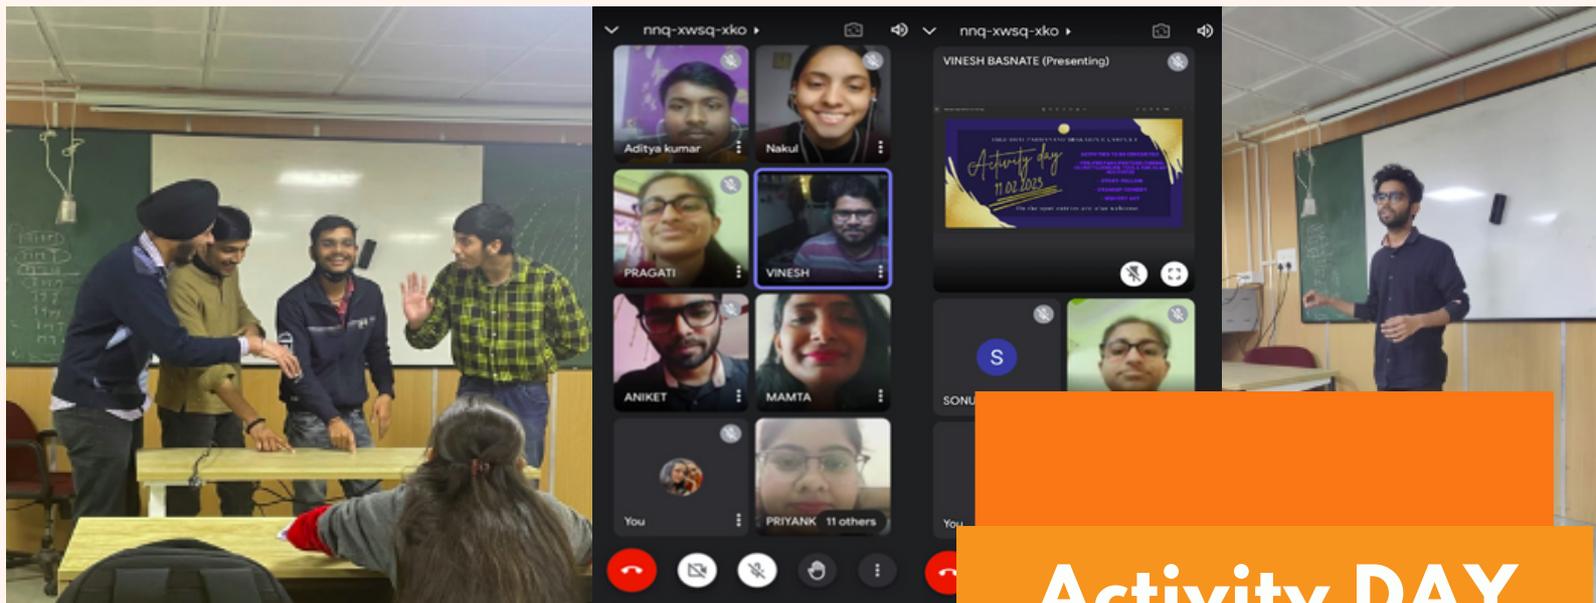

She motivated the students to contribute to the society we live in a better way and explained how to fight against criminals according to the law.
